O Lord, in your king - - - dom.

(7) Let us with one ac - cord praise as Sav - iour and Cre - a - - - - tor him who made life flow - er for our kind by the tree of the Cross, and who with - ered the curse that came from the tree.

(6) By your death, O Christ, you de - - stroyed the might of death, and raised with your - self those dead from ag - es who praise you our true God and Sav - iour.

(5) The ho - ly wom - - en who came to your tomb, O Christ, sought to an - oint you, the Giv - er of life, with myrrh, and an an - gel ap - peared to them, cry - ing: The Lord is ris - - - - - en.

(4) You were cru - ci - fied, O Christ, be - tween two con - demned thieves, and the one who blas - phemed you was right - ly sen - tenced, while the oth - er con - fessed you and went to dwell in par - a - dise.

(3) The ho - ly wom - - en came to the choir of the a - pos - - tles and lift - ed their voic - es to cry: Christ is ris - en, wor - ship him as Mas - ter and Cre - a - tor.

(Glory)

(2) Trin - i - ty with - out div - i - sion, one all - cre - a - ting and al - might - y,

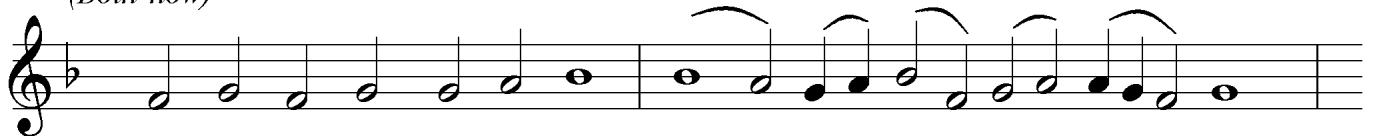

Fa - ther, Son and Ho - - ly Spir - it, we hymn you, the true God and our Sav - - - - iour.
