

May 1st. The Holy Prophet Jeremias

At Vespers, on "Lord, I have cried", last 3 verses, Tone 8

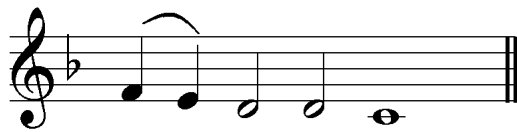

(melody: "O Lord, even though at the tribunal")

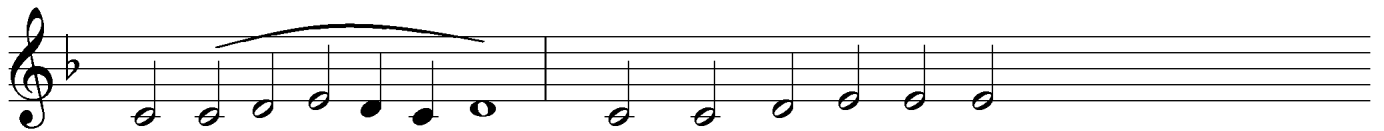

(II) For with the Lord there is mer - cy, and with him plen - ti - ful

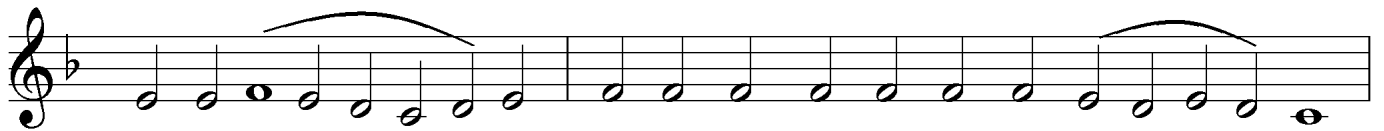

re - demp - tion; and he will re - deem Is - ra - el from all his

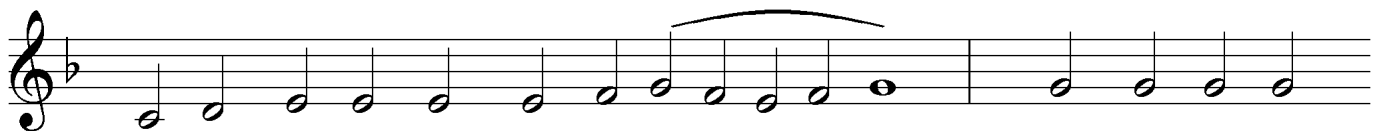

in - - - - i - qui - ties.

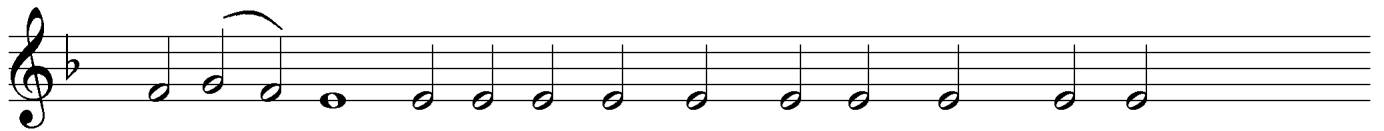

O Lord, you knew the glo - ri - ous

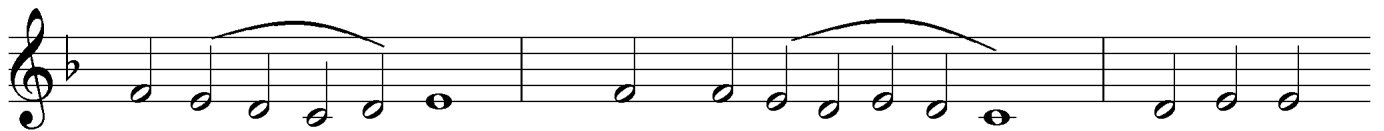

Jer - e - mi - - - - - as e - ven be - fore he was cre - at - - - - - ed;

and be - fore his birth from the womb you sanc - ti - fied

the Proph - et to tru - ly have free - dom of thought from the

be - gin - - - - - ning. Through his prayers, as you are mer - ci - ful, save our souls.

(I) Praise the Lord, all you na - tions; praise him, all you peo - ples.

O Lord, e - ven though the ho - ly

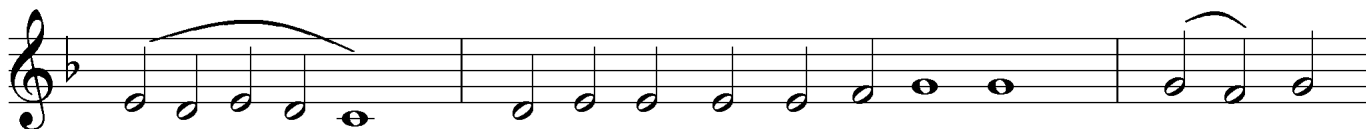

Jer - e - mi - - - - - as was thrown in - to a cess - - - - - pool, he gained spir - it - u - al - ly a beau - ti - ful, sweet fra - - - - - grance;

He dwells in the man - sions of Par - - - - - a - dise. Through his prayers, as you are our Ben - e - fac - tor, pre - - - serve us all.

(II) For his mer - cy has been might - y to - wards us; and the truth of the Lord en - dures to the ag - es.

O Lord, the Proph - et, shin - - - - - ing with your most ra - - - - di - ant light, was seen e - ven by his en - - - - e - mies to be bless - ed and hon - - our - a - ble. For the ad - ver - sar - y was put to shame by his vir - - - - - tues; and he saw fu - ture things as though they were pres - ent deeds.

Glory. Both now. From the Pentcostarion.
